CRAWLING WITH COPS

OOJAH CUM PIVVY

IMPACTING RADIO NOW

Crawling With Cops is an alternative duo based out of Madison, WI whose new album from Crawling With Cops was released on 1 July 2016.

One can only imagine if Crawling With Cops were a quartet quite how loud they would be, as this is a duo who need to be heard with ears bleeding and walls shaking.

The duo switch voices through tracks giving the compositions immense vocal range and melody and the blistering guitar fires like an arrow through the speakers. It is the sub-woofers that struggle as the impatient drum-kit emits thumps from each skin and piece of metal whilst the sublime bass makes the listener want to melt into the sonics.

The band consists of writer, performer Chris G. Simmons who founded such bands as Lick City, The Vagues and The Niki Taylors who gigged constantly with Marilyn Manson in their early days and also is the creative force behind experimental projects The Push Up Daisies, Comejungle, Gloriovs Dead and Parijs Plague; and Claire Lempke who was discovered in a church choir and whose angelic voice makes CWC's sound so unique. Oojah Cum Pivvy marks Claire's studio recording debut.

The band has opted for returning to the studio to record their 2nd album in lieu of a US tour.
